

Directory Of Professional Genealogists

Featured In Each SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER Issue of Everton's Genealogical Helper

A Professional Researcher Is One Who Is Qualified To Conduct Research for Others, and One Who Takes Research Assignments For A Fee

INSTRUCTIONS

Below is an application to have your name and address and research services included in a directory of those who conduct genealogical research on a remunerative basis. Guidelines are: (1) This list will be published by Everton Publishers once a year in each September-October issue of Everton's Genealogical Helper. (2) Information furnished by researchers in this application will appear in the list, but must meet the guidelines set by Everton Publishers. Only the data asked for on the form will be published. (3) There will be geographical groupings of professional researchers under each of the states and District of Columbia, and under other areas such as New England, North, South, British Isles, Scandinavia, other foreign countries and geographical areas. Also groupings such as Quaker Records, Population Census Schedules, and other informational areas will be included, enabling one to quickly select a researcher who is qualified to do research in the areas of interest. (4) The cost of listing your name, address, and qualifications under the research categories is $4.50 each.

Entries will include ONLY the information asked for on this form. Additional details can be discussed directly with your clients who request your research services.

Please indicate the records or types of genealogical research you will undertake by checking where appropriate:
